Adopt A Personality and Help Suncoast Humane Society Raise $10,000

Even if you can't bring a new pet into your home, you can still support the animals of Suncoast Humane Society (SHS) by virtually adopting a community personality. The ten lovable personalities for adoption have pledged to raise a total of $10,000 to help SHS continue its mission to reduce the number of homeless animals and improve the quality of life. The virtual adoptions will raise funds for common costs at the Humane Society like food, vaccinations, microchipping, and spay/neuter procedures.

The adoptees are:

Steve Crowell – North Port City Manager

Rich Harms – “Rock Star”

Leslie Edwards - Realtor

Steve Dudley – Treasurer, Suncoast Humane Society

Pet Therapy Team – A dedicated group of volunteers and their special friends

Dr. Randy Hitesman – “Doc” Suncoast Humane Society

Jenn Byrd – Kinetico Water

Kathy Rohrbach and Ron Smith – State Farm Insurance

Connie Ellis – “Superstar”

Ruffin Snyder – “Sweetheart”

“We are fortunate to have many friends and community leaders who are proud to support our organization. Their dedication and good humor have given us all a chance to have fun with philanthropy while raising awareness of the needs and good work of Suncoast Humane Society,” said Phil Snyder, Executive Director.

To make a virtual adoption, visit www.humane.org and click on “10 Personalities Looking for $10,000”. Choose your favorite personality and select the level at which you'd like to support Suncoast Humane Society. All donations are 100% tax deductible. And don't worry, you won't actually have to take them home, but you might just have a friend forever.
